A Report From the Jury in the Cronin Case.

PLOT AND CONSPIRACY PROVEN.

Alexander Su'llvan, Daniel Coughiln, Patrtck O. Sullivan and Woodrnff Held as Principals or Accessories to the Crime. Sullivan Arrested and Locked Up. Thirty Other Suspected Persons to Be Arrested at Once-Startling Disclosures Looked for in the Near Future.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The first witness they departed. 121 Superior street. The sub tance of his testimony was that about two years ago Dan Coughlin came to him and asked him if he thought he could get Maj. Sampson to "do np" a fellow for him. Coughlin said: "Take a ball bat and break his nose, or knock out his teeth, distigure him for life, unything to 'do him up'

Conghlin replied, "Well it wouldn't make much difference if he was killed."

Frank Murray, assistant superintendent of the Pinkerton Detective agency, was next called. Mr. Mnrray described his trip to P. O. Sullivan's house and interview with Sullivan Sunday, the day after Dr. Cronin's disappearance.

Paul Hoefing, desk sergeant at the East Chicago avenue station, was called.

Columbia camp. He knew John F. Beggs, and had several conversations about Dr. Cronin's disappearance with him. Both of them thought Dr. Cronin alive. The witness said he knew no reason why Dr. Cronin should be removed. His further testimony was in regard to the disposition of the funds collected and regarding the trial of Dr. Croning but nothing new was brought

J. D. Haggerty, a railroad clerk, testified: After the trial of Dr. Cronin, Alexander Sullivan told him that Dr. Cronin was a scoundrel and a menace to the Irish cause. It was witnesses impression that Sullivan was trying to impression that Similar was trying to impress him with the opinion that Cronin should be exterminated. The witness was of the same opinion at that time.

About that time a circular had been is sued, saying that many Scotland yard detectives had left England for Amerion to attempt to find out some of the secrets of the order, and every member of the order was on the lookout for informers. Tim Crane, who has since died, circulated the statement that Cronin was a dangerous man and a traitor. The word traitor stirs up a revengeful feeling in the breast of every Irishman. At that time Alexander Sullivan was not alone in his opinion. LeCaron, who was a friend of Alexander Sullivan, was a member of the committee which tried Dr. Cronin. He was introduced to the witness by Sullivan at the trial, as a man worthy of confidence in the Irish cause. He was also opposed to Dr. Cronin at the time, on account of the statement from Alexander Sullivan. Up to the revelations of the inquest the witness had no idea that Alexander Sullivan could be mixed up in such diabolical husiness. Witness is a member of Camp 52 of the United Brotherhood.

The afternoon session was full of interest. Hakan Martinson, the Swedish expressman who hunled the furniture from the Clark street flat opposite Cronin's office to the Carlson cottage, told his story as it has been already published. He said he had seen the man who hired him several times since the dny in question. Officer Moore told of a conversation he had had with Cronin in which the latter said that Sullivan had threatened to kill him, and that he knew there was a conspiracy to put him out of the way.

The trunk was taken out by the two men and lifted into the hole. It was too large, how-ever, to go in. Then after telling him to drive on a few yards they kicked in the side and deposited the body in the basin. Woodrnii thought at the time it was the corpse of a woman. The trunk was lifted back into the wagon, but sub-sequently thrown into the clump of bushes where it was found. Then he drove the men to Lincoln park where work was done was in prison. In this case the betrayers were foiled. The evidence went on to tell of the men sent across the water. Lomasney and Fleming were sent in 1885 and killed in London. When the unknown witness wanted to raise a fund for the defense of the men on trial in England, Gen. Kirwin said that friendless men were better off at such times. When the witness returned from New York he had "three half pennys" in his pocket. The row in the Pittsburg convention was gone over. Another witness told how Dillon had been given money for his "active work. and how Moroney had been given $400 at and how Moroney had been given $400 at one time and $600 at another by Gen. Kirwin, in behalf of the executive, so that he could go into the furnishing goods business in Philadelphia.

Other witnesses told of Capt. Lomasney's mission of destruction to England.

Carrol, Kerwin and Boland were scored for neglecting the families of the dynamiters. Fleming's mother died in the poor house. The captains wife was turned out of her house by the sheriff. She testified before the committee that she had received but $1,000 from the organization. She saw Alexander Sullivan and told him her condition, but he did not nid her.

This concluded the reading and also the inquiry. It was 4:30 in the afternoon, and the private papers of the murdered man had

He said nothing when the warrant was read, but with a self-possessed smile accompanied the officers to the carriage. STILL RECOVERING THE DEAD.

Some of the Bodles Crushed Beyond All Semblance to Humanity-Great Fears of Serious Trouble Among the Men at Work Remaying the Wreck.

Johnstown, Pa., June 12. - At 9 o'clock last night twenty-six huge bonfires lighted up the valley and mountain sides for miles around. The piles of wreckage remeved from the debris during the day was thus disposed of, making a grand sight. The horrers continue, and there seems no end. Ever since the water receded into its channel, fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers sceking their dead, have wandered up and down amid the rains.

To-day is no different in this respect from yesterday. At each cry "They have found another," these heartbroken searchers hasten forward, and anxiously gaze on the features of the dead. Every now and then is heard a wail of distress, sometimes rising almost to the pitch of a scream, and again nothing but a seb is heard as a friend or relative is recognized.

Last evening the body of pretty little Jennio Given, aged 15, was discovered.

A charge of dynamite loosened the jam of drift, disclosing four bodies. Under the floor of a wrecked building, pinned down by the heavy sills laying across her face and limbs, lay the body crushed almost beyond semblance to humanity. A man elbowing his way through the crowd stood guzing at the mud-covered corpse. His anguish-stricken counte-nance proclaimed him a relative, even though he did not speak. As he turned awny after the body was removed, he was asked if he recognized her. His look was as if he could not understand, and his only response was "Poor, poor Jennie." A department for identification of valuables has been established on Main street, with Rev. Mr. Baer in charge.

Trouble Among the Workmen. The trouble that has been brewing came late last night, when William Flinn, of the firm of Booth & Flinn, who seemed nearly 4,000 men to work in the ruins around town, had a long consultation with Gen. Hastings, who told him that Ryan and McDonald had the contract. Mr. McDonald was introduced to Mr. Flinn and asked him to get him 2,000 men, and to work the contract with him. Mr. Flinn indignantly refused to do so, and unless the governor yields and makes some concessions, it is believed that every one of the Booth & Flinn men will march out of Johnstown. That will leave Gen. Hastings and Johnstown worse off than her been participated.

Hundreds of the laborers are leaving to-day, and by evening their number will be greatly reduced. This is but the beginning of the outpouring that will soon set in. The opinion is gaining strength that Gen. Hastings has made a serious mistake in offering less to the laborers than has heretofore been paid, and that the result will be at least a temporary cessation of work. Under present management the wages have been $2 per day, and food furnished them.

All of Booth & Flinn's men, about 4,500, will be paid off and discharged. Transportation will be furnished for as many as do not wish to remain and work for the state at the reduced rate.

Gen. Wylie remarked: This is an unusual undertaking, and people who have not been here have no idea of its magnitude. If the weather is good it will take sixty days and 2,000 men to get order out of this chaos, and if the weather is bad it will take ninety days at least.

Contugious Disease Discovered.

Notwithstanding the official aunonncement made by the state board of health to the effect that there are no contagious diseases here, some have been discovered by the Red Cross society. This society has established a hospital at Kerrsville, and there are now three cases of malignant diphtheria being cared for—a mother and two children. The mother contracted the disease while nursing her children.

Probably Johnstown Victims.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Two hodies, a man and women, supposed to be victims of the Johnstown flood, were found in the river at Anderson's Ferry, six miles below this city, yesterday. They were badly decomposed and there was nothing by which they could be identified.

This kind of foolishness will have to be put a stop to, even if the plain voters of the party, who indeed comprise its force and vitality, have to rebel and reconstruct the party, its committees and machinery. Our party in Kentucky has got fastened upon it a lot of blood-suckers who have been on the committees for years, who have combinations among themselves to control the Federal appointments. #### Dr. Clark's Story.

, The Portsmouth Blade says: "Dr. J. F. Clarke, the Maysville, Ky., veterlnary surgeon, under arrest for horse stealing, had his preliminary hearing in 'Squire Hall's court Friday evening. It resulted in his being bound over to the Common Pleas Court in the sum of $400, in default of which he was sent back to jail. The friends of Dr. Clark have set to work to secure his release. ## Empowering Women to Marry Peo-

the legality of empowering a woman minister to perform marriage ceremonies. A Propate Judge has decided that she is not disqualified on account of sex. Why a controversy about this in these days, when a man and woman can stand up before anybody and be married? An agreement before witnesses to be man and wife has been declared a legal marriage time and again. A man merely acknowledging a woman to be his wife and living with her as such, without having gone through any form at all, constitutes a legal bond in this State. Perhaps some of these days marriage laws will be reduced to such a shape that there will be some uniformity and definiteness about them, but at present they are in a wonderfully confused state. As our law stands ministers and magistrates are superfluities in promoting matrimony.

Contract for Furnishing the Indians With Blankets

AWARDED THE LOWEST BIDDER.

John Dohson, of Philadelphia, Secures It After an Earnest Protest-Presidential Appointments-Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—John Dobson, of Philadelphia, has been awarded the contract for furnishing the Indians with blankets. The contract aggregates about $56,000, which is about $8,000 less than the lowest bidder. The contract was held by Mr. Dobson last year, and his bid this year, although $8,000 less than the next lowest bidder, was rejected by Commissioner Oberly on the ground that Dobson had not satisfactorily carried out his present contract.

A second advertisement was put out for bids for blankets. Mr. Dobson protested and proclaimed his willingness to observe all the restructions incorporated in the second advertisement. The whole matter was referred to Assistant Secretary Bussey, and he decided that the original rejection of Mr. Dobson's bid was unwarranted. He was yesterday awarded the contract on his own original bids,

Only a Political Rumor.

Washington, June 12.—A special to The Post from Detroit, Mich., says: 'A report has been going the rounds of the press for some time to the effect that Gen. R. A. Alger had openly announced his intention of becoming a candidate before the next National Republican before the next National Republican convention for the presidential nomination. When shown the article Gen. Alger emphatically denied that he had ever uttered the silly statements attributed to him or that such a thought had ever entered his mind. "It is simply Democratic talk," said the general. "Democratic papers ought to be able to invent some more sensible story even if the weather is hot."

WOULDN'T BE WHIPPED.

A Georgia State Senator Shot and Killed by His Step-Son.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 12.-Yes. terday morning, on his farm near Dalton, Gn., Hon. Samuel G. Field, senator from the Forty-third Georgia district, was shot and instantly killed by his step-son, Dennis Taylor, aged 20 years. The young man was arrested and lodged in jail at Dalton. The two were at a barn feeding stock, when Mr. Field became angeved, and started with a whip towards Taylor, who remonstrated, and said that he was too old to be whipped, but to no effect, as Mr. Field still came on.

Young Taylor thereupon ran to an ndfacent building, seized a londed shotgun, ran back, pushed the muzzle of the wenpon against Mr. Field's neck, and discharged the piece. The load of buckshot tore away the throat of the seceiver, and he died in five minutes. There were no witnesses to the tragedy. Friends of the family say that Taylor has been under the care of Field for many years, and that his treatment was quite kind and tender.

ly and unprovoked murder was com-mitted here yesterday. Alphonso Webb, a well known citizen, became intoxicated and was taken to his home by Policeman Ed. McCoy. As the officer was passing through the gate he was fired upon by Webb and almost instantly killed. He managed, however, to exchange one shot with Webb, inflecting a light wound.

SHORT TALK.

Small Events Which Took Place at Different Places. The Miliers' National association is in ses-slon at Milwaukee. A young man named Comes was drowned ln an oil tank at Cygnet, O.

An old iadv named Wingate died at Versailles, Ind., from eating poisoned iettuce. Cincinnati's subscriptions to the Johnstown relief fund now amounts to $24,870.92. William Anderson committed suicide near Ironwood, Mich., by jumping into a mine shaft.

At Plainfield, N. Y., Lucien Freeman, while insane, killed his mother and a man named Morgan.

Dick Green was shot and killed by Henry Perkins at Nebo, Ky., lu a quarrel about a jug of whisky. At Clay Center, Kan., J. B. Wellington, a traveling man, was fatally shot by a physician named Stewart. Forty indictments were found by the Federal grand jury at Indianapolls for violation of the ejection laws. Leonard Hinkie was arrested at Noblesvlile, Ind., charged with cruel treatment toward his 12-year-old daughter, Peter Zimmer, a despondent barber, fired a bullet into his head at Cincinnati, and then jumped into river. He was rescued, but will probably die. Albert Butler, who induced a 13-year-old girl named Weber to leave her home in Addyston and accompany him to Cincinnati. has been arrested on a charge of criminal assault.

Notwithstanding that London prices this morning were almost invariably lower than morning were almost invariably lower than our closing figures of last evening, the market opened quiet hut strong with the first prices showing advantages ranging from 1/8 to 1/2 per cent. This strength continued during the first hour and a half, and as the morning wore on there was more activity. After 11:30 some selling caused an insettled feeling and prices were somewhat irregular, but at this writing values are steady and generally fractionally higher than those of yesterday.
